★ TOWELING ★

STACY IEST HSU

When asked to create a line of seasonal retro towels, the first thing that popped into my head was my grandmother and what kind of tea towels she would have had in her kitchen. I thought about her famous lemon meringue pie. Her delicious strawberry shortcake with real whipped cream. The eggs she would get from my Uncle John's chickens on the farm. The epic 4th of July parties she would throw every year for her family. Or all the kids sitting around the TV watching The Rifleman or Gunsmoke. All these memories were the culmination of Classic Retro, a collection of toweling by the yard with iconic vintage imagery.

Let Classic Retro spark sentimental retro in your home.
